PRELIMINARY ORDER OF FORFEITURE

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED THAT:

1. As a result of his guilty plea to Count One of Information No. 07-CR-217, which alleged forfeiture pursuant to 18 U.S.C. §2253, and the defendant's admission of the forfeiture allegation on the record on May 23, 2007 which are set forth in that Information, the defendant shall forfeit to the United States all his right, title and interest in any property, real or personal, used or intended to be used to commit or to promote the commission of the charged 18 U.S.C. §2252A (incorporating 18 U.S.C. §2256) as alleged in Information No. 07-CR-217; and

2. The Court has determined that based on evidence already in the record, including the defendant's plea of guilty on the record on May 23, 2007, and admission of the illegal acts alleged in Count One of Information No. 07-CR-217, that the following property is subject to forfeiture pursuant to 18 U.S.C. §2253, and that the government has established the requisite nexus between such property and such offense:

A. One Compaq Presario computer, model SR1550NX, s/n CNH5241GWG.

3. Upon the entry of this Order, the United States Marshal Service is authorized to seize the property set forth above.

4. Upon entry of this Order, the United States Attorney is authorized to conduct any discovery proper in identifying, locating or disposing of the property subject to forfeiture, in accordance with Fed. R. Crim. P. 32.2(b)(3) and 18 U.S.C. §2253(b), incorporating 21 U.S.C. §853(i).

5. Upon entry of this Order, the United States is authorized to commence any applicable proceeding to comply with statutes governing third party rights, including giving notice of this Order.

6. The United States shall publish notice of the Order and its intent to dispose of the property in such a manner as the United States Attorney General may direct. The United States may also, to the extent practicable, provide written notice to any person known to have an alleged interest in the subject property.

7. Any person, other than the above named defendant, asserting a legal interest in any of the subject property may, within thirty days of the final publication of notice or receipt of notice, whichever is earlier, petition the court for a hearing without a jury to adjudicate the validity of his/her alleged interest in the subject property, and for an amendment of the Order of Forfeiture, pursuant to 18 U.S.C. §2253(b), incorporating 21 U.S.C. §853(n).

8. Any petition filed by a third party asserting an interest in the subject property shall be signed by the petitioner under penalty of perjury and shall set forth the nature and extent of the petitioner's right, title, or interest in the subject property, the time and circumstances of the petitioner's acquisition of the right, title or interest in the subject property, and any additional facts supporting the petitioner's claim and the relief sought.

9. After the disposition of any motion filed under Fed. R. Crim. P. 32.2(c)(1)(B) and before a hearing on the petition, discovery may be conducted in accordance with the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure upon a showing that such discovery is necessary or desirable to resolve factual issues.

10. The United States shall have clear title to the subject property following the Court's disposition of all third-party interests, or, if none, following the expiration of the period provided in Fed. R. Crim. P. 32.2 (c)(1)(B), 18 U.S.C. §2253(b), incorporating 21 U.S.C. §853(n)(7) for the filing of third party petitions.

11. Pursuant to Fed. R. Crim. P. 32.2(b)(3), this Preliminary Order of Forfeiture shall become final as to the defendant at the time of sentencing or before sentencing if the defendant consents and shall be made part of the sentence and included in the judgment. If no third party files a timely claim, this Order shall become the Final Order of Forfeiture as provided by Fed.R.Crim.P. 32.2(c)(2).

12. The Court shall retain jurisdiction to enforce this Order, and to amend it as necessary, pursuant to Fed. R. Crim. P. 32.2(e).

13. The Clerk of the Court shall forward six (6) certified copies of this order to Assistant U.S. Attorney Thomas A. Capezza, United States Attorney's Office for the Northern District of New York, P.O. Box 7198, 100 South Clinton Street, Syracuse, New York 13261-7198.
